"Well, well," said Mrs. Partington, her spectacles beaming with delight as she turned over the leaves of the new cookery-book, "I declare, it excites my salvation glands even to read the names of these good things. It seems as though the greatest epicure might find something among all these meats and cosmetics to give a jest to appetite. * * * Now a book like this will come into a house like an oasis in the desert of the great Sarah, and be a quarantine of perpetual peace."

CULTURE'S GARLAND: Being Memoranda of the gradual rise of Literature, Art, Music and Society in Chicago and other Western Ganglia. By EUGENE FIELD. With Preface by Julian Hawthorne.

"The name of Eugene Field, of the Chicago Daily News, though heard for the first time only a few years ago, is already a famous and a favorite name in journalism. He bears the reputation of a humorist; but his humor is not of the conventional order; it has a wider and a loftier scope. . . . The present little volume comprises mainly a bubbling forth of delightful badinage and mischievous railery, directed at some of the foibles and pretensions of his enterprising fellow-townsmen, who, however, can by no means be allowed to claim a monopoly of either the pretensions or the foibles herein exploited. It is a book which should, and doubtless will, attain a national popularity; but admirable, and indeed irresistible, though it be in its way, it represents a very inconsiderable fraction of the author's real capacity."—Julian Hawthorne.

CULTURE'S GARLAND will also be issued in cloth binding. Price, $1.00.

These goods are adapted to a wider range of art work than any yet offered for this purpose. The convenience of having this reliable brand on spools, rather than doubtful goods in skeins which tangle and become quickly shop-worn, will be apparent to dealers and consumers. TUSSAH EMBROIDERY SILK.

Fas. Pearsall & Co.
(ENGLAND)

INVITE attention to this new Embroidery Silk, supplied by them exclusively to the celebrated Leek Embroidery Society, who initiated and still direct this new style of needlework. It is made from the cocoons of the wild silkworm of India. It is dyed in Messrs. Pearsall's UNFADING EASTERN DYES; but in order to obtain the clever effects of color, as seen in the Leek Society's work, the colors are not in regular gradations of shades, but are broken. SOLD AT RETAIL BY ALL ART EMBROIDERY MATERIALS DEALERS.

N. B.—Every skein bears the words "PEARSALL'S TUSSAH EMBROIDERY SILK" and "UNFADING EASTERN DYES." No other is genuine.
